(Senate Resolution 32)

Whereas, In the passing of Finley J. Henderson on July 27, 1959, the State of Texas lost a conscientious and respected citizen; and

Whereas, Mr. Henderson, a native of Austin and a life-long resident thereof, was born on February 4, 1899, and was married to Miss Kathryn Shaw on August 10, 1945, who survives him; and

Whereas, After his attendance in the public schools of Austin he volunteered and fought in the French Army in 1916 and later with the American Expeditionary Forces in 1917 and 1918 in World War I; and

Whereas, By reason of his consecration to duty and his service and bravery, he was decorated by both the French Army and the Army of the United States; and

Whereas, Mr. Henderson was an active outdoor sportsman and civic-minded citizen and leaves many friends surviving; and

Whereas, It is the desire of the Senate to express its sympathy to the surviving wife and other members of his family and to pay tribute to this distinguished Texan; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, By the Senate of Texas that it does hereby express its deep sympathy to the surviving wife, family and friends of Finley J. Henderson, and that a copy of this Resolution, under the Seal of the Senate, be forwarded to his surviving wife and that when the Senate adjourns today, it do so in his memory and that a page in the Journal be set aside for this Resolution.

In Memory of Glen D. Woodson

Senator Willis offered the following resolution:

(Senate Resolution 33)

Whereas, The death of Glen D. Woodson of Tarrant County, Texas, marks the passing of a great Texan; and

Whereas, He faithfully served his community and fellowman in positions of leadership and responsibility for many years. He gave unselfishly of his time and talents, indeed his very life, to the service of his Community, State and Nation in keeping with his personal philosophy of life; and

Whereas, It is the desire of the Senate to pay tribute to the memory of this distinguished citizen; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, By the Senate of Texas, that we extend our sincere sympathy to the family of Glen D. Woodson; that a copy of this Resolution be sent to each member of his family; that a page in the Senate Journal be set aside in his memory; and that when the Senate adjourns today, it do so in memory and honor of Glen D. Woodson.
